

profoundly mixed feelings re Hitler

i can't deny disturbance on perusing Wikipedia re Nazi Animal Welfare.

a closing of the abattoirs, a global ban on vivisection - Hitler would have done it.

a complex fact, that history's famous Genocide was keen to stop history's great Biocide - Man.

you hate Trump, yet also hate the TPP he nixed, give some credit.

a rare one, for sure - he & some Ahimsan Lord who heeded wise Gautama - an Aryan too, youch.

our number one, no-debate, Survey Says Villain is the guy who couldn't stand to see an animal in pain, but was glib about humans on the cattle train.

i notice an affinity: i tend to psychopathic re humanity when sitting thru Earthlings.

my heart is with the loser, so my sympathy is small when it's you being loaded in the cattle car. now you know, i hiss within - then peer around, fear i'm overheard.

i'm not anti-Jewish, i'm indifferent which Tribe.
i want you all to die, when i'm sitting thru Dominion.

Hitler as an animal, sent into the City. Hitler as a hack of man's hegemony.

an End-time Avatar, Elector of the Herd yet his brain got squeezed in the birth canal, he misperceives the Word: his target too selective [anti-Jew, anti-Gypsy] and his love too local [pro-Germany].

the War turns unwinnable, he regresses to his origins: suffers from the sense that his body isn't his, a dysphoria he counters with a pharmaceutical course that amounts to a transfusion, uses such diverse substances as Tonophosphan, a metabolic stimulant made by the company Hurst, chiefly used nowadays in veterinary medicine; the hormone-rich and immune system-boosting bodybuilding supplement Homoseron, a byproduct of uterine blood; a sexual hormone Testoviron, to combat declining libido and vitality; and orchachrin, a derivative of bulls' testicles, which is supposed to be a cure for depression. Another substance used was called Prostacrinin, and was made from seminal vesicles and the prostates of young bulls. Even though he didn't eat meat, Hitler surely could no longer be considered vegetarian. From autumn 1941 onward, more and more highly concentrated animal substances began to circulate in his bloodstream.¹

from 1941, he was meta-vegetarian: a herbivore in diet, with the endocrinal profile of a bull.

still he did better than the prior Iteration. the one who came by manger, made his exit thru the abattoir,² yet worried all his years for "the People", for "the Poor"; who made all lambs their metaphor.

- all are called to be the Jésus, few can do.
- all are called to be Muaa'dib, to let the Ruah-Kadim blow thru.
- Jésus, too, could barely do.
- you rhyme with Jésus, too.

the long-term Selection Plan is K, tho her pregnancies will multiply. lotsa kitts will tree from She, droves of flesh pour from thoo, tho few are Jésus.

² his fatal act of Temple-cleansing, i mean.

the ALF's number one tactic, i allow, may be loving all people. i fantasize gassing you, yet hate to see one of you in respiratory distress. the killing room resolves into an apoplectic face, and my heart keenly resonates, i fess up to my friendship.

addendum, reading RFK Jr's damning Covid tome: profoundly mixed feelings re the Merck-Gates fertility killer, the Wuhan bioweapon, Fauci making all the world his lab.
